

The ePosting Sheet is an electronic version of a paper posting sheet which may be used by customers of Slovenská pošta (hereinafter referred to as „the SP“) while posting items, under the fulfilment of the conditions set in the present Technical Parameters. The ePosting Sheet may be used without a need of its after-printing and presentation in the paper form.

1. Introductory Provisions

- 1.1. The ePosting Sheet may be used while posting the items at selected post offices and regional hubs of express services (hereinafter referred to as „the RH“) listed at <http://eph.posta.sk/>.
- 1.2. By means of the ePosting Sheet, the following categories of the items may be posted:
 - a) Registered Letters,
 - b) Official Postal Items,
 - c) Insured Letters,
 - d) Registered Postal Items for the blind,
 - e) Parcels,
 - f) Express Courier,
 - g) Easy Express,
 - h) EPG – Business Parcel,
 - i) EMS – Express Mail Service,
 - j) Parcels – Contract Customers.

Supplementary and dispositional services to these items and their possible combinations are specified in the respective Postal Terms and Conditions (and in Annex 2 to the present Technical Parameters). The customer shall be responsible for their correct specification in the ePosting Sheet.

- 1.3. The customer may complete the ePosting Sheet in the range of:

- a) partial data – without posting numbers of the items,
- b) full data – including posting numbers of the items. In this case, the customer shall label the items with posting numbers in terms of the Technical Parameters – Labelling of Items available at www.posta.sk and on demand, at the Customer Service of the SP.

The specification of the posting numbers in the ePosting Sheets is mandatory at the selected categories of the items (in terms of the respective Postal Terms and Conditions) and while sending the ePosting Sheet pursuant to Art. 2.1.2.

2. Creating and Sending of ePosting Sheet

- 2.1. The SP provides the following options for the making and sending of the ePosting Sheet:
 1. web application – it enables to generate and send the ePosting Sheet,
 2. SOAP API
 3. REST API

2.1.1. Web Application

Web application is located at www.posta.sk, in the „eServices“ Part and enables:

- a) completion of the ePosting Sheet by direct typing and its after-sending to the electronic environment of the SP. Where appropriate, the application enables to store an incomplete posting sheet in the client’s own environment, in the XML or XLS formats which may be imported into the application later, in compliance with Art. b).

- b) import of the XML or XLS (Excel) file for the ePosting Sheet which has been generated by the customer in his own environment. The format of the XML file is defined in Annexes 1 and 2 of the present Technical Parameters, the format of the XLS file is defined in Annex 4 of the present Technical Parameters. The XLS forms are available for downloading at <http://eph.posta.sk>.

After sending of the ePosting Sheet, the SP shall send the customer, to the e-mail address specified, a notification on acceptance of the ePosting Sheet. A part of this notification is also the number of the ePosting Sheet which serves as an identifier while posting. This identifier is not required when the customer completes also the posting numbers in the ePosting Sheet as described in Art. 1.3.

The user manual is a part of the application and is available in the „Help” Part.

2.1.2. SOAP API

Sending an ePosting Sheet via the (SOAP) API can be used by the Customer subject to the following conditions:

- a. generates the XML file himself in his own environment. The format of the XML file is defined in Annex 1 and 2 of these Technical Parameters,
- b. is registered as an user of Moja ePošta. The registration must be done before the first use of communication via the API. Registration must be done at <https://mojezasielky.posta.sk/#signup>.
- c. Activate the API by logging on the website in the menu More / Notifications and APIs / Web ePH API and selecting Web ePH API Activated. Once the changes are saved, the userId and apiKey authentication credentials will be made available.

2.1.3. REST API

Sending an ePostal Sheet via the REST API can be used by the Customer subject to the following conditions:

- a. is registered as an user Moja ePošta. The registration must be done before the first use of communication via the API. Registration must be made at <https://mojezasielky.posta.sk/#signup>.
- b. Activate the API by logging on the website in the menu More / Notifications and APIs / Web ePH API and selecting Web ePH API Activated. Once the changes are saved, the userId and apiKey authentication credentials will be made available.
- c. Sends items to the created ePosting Sheet continuously and can also download the address label

3. Posting of Items with ePosting Sheet and Posting Receipt

- 3.1. Posting of items shall be performed from 1 minutes at earliest and to 10 calendar days at latest after sending of the ePosting Sheet into the information system of the SP. After the period stipulated, the posting sheet will be deleted and its repeated sending into the information system of the SP shall be required.
- 3.2. When the customer uses a cash payment method, he may post the items at any post office or RH (Contractual Parcel, Express Courier, EPG, International EMS) pursuant to Art. 1.1. When the customer uses some of cashless payment methods or he labels the items with posting labels of the SP, he shall make the postings at the post office/RH in terms of the permission granted or agreement/contract concluded.
- 3.3. When the office of posting or the RH, while accepting the items and processing the ePosting Sheet, establishes any imperfection (e.g. incorrectly specified weight of items, incorrectly specified supplementary services, missing items, etc.), it shall be entitled to make an alternation needed. All the alternations shall be consulted with the customer directly at posting or in other manner agreed (e.g. by means of a contact person for services – „Pick-up Service“ or „Carrying-over Posting“).

The customer shall commit himself to acknowledge, at full length, any additional alterations made by the SP based on differences and imperfections recognized and heard directly at posting or in other manner agreed.

After processing the ePosting Sheet and the posted items by the office of posting or the RH, a posting receipt (electronic receipt) shall be available for the customer. For the customer is available on the following website: <https://mojezasielky.posta.sk>, in the PDF format with the electronic signature.

- 3.4. The eReports and eLists for the customer shall be transmitted to the SFTP. Examples of the eReports and eLists are given in Annex 6 and 7.

4. Complaints

- 4.1. Provisions of the Complaints Procedure of the SP shall be applicable to complaints.

5. Final Provisions

- 5.1. The present Technical Parameters – ePosting Sheet shall be obligatory for all the customers using the electronic form of posting.
- 5.2. The present Technical Parameters shall be available at www.posta.sk and on demand, at the Customer Service of the SP.
- 5.3. The present Technical Parameters shall come in force on the day of their approval and become operative on 1 September, 2012.
- 5.4. When amending these technical parameters, an entire text including the amendments introduced shall be issued. They came into force:
 - 01. 09. 2012
 - 01. 05. 2023
 - 01. 03. 2025.

Annex 1 – Format of the XML File

1. File Format for Mailing of Items

For an exchange of information in the electronic form between an organization and the SP, the XML format shall be used.

The file for mailing of the items, generated in the XML format, shall use for a string representation the UTF-8 coding. A document structure, version 3.0, shall be the following:

<EPH verzia="3.0">
